Affected Data

Affected data contains all data that our members or interested parties provide us with, e.g. by use of our website, signing our member contract, communicating via group chats, or participating in our trainings.

Data Use

We process data necessary to run our academy and offer high quality services. Such data may contain the following (non-exhaustive list):

- Contact data
- Contract data
- Data related to the sale of equipment or other articles
- Browser and device data, cookies
- Meta- and/or usage data on our website

We process data during the legally prescribed period. Data no longer needed for processing will be anonymized or deleted periodically.

Individuals whose data we process may request its deletion.

During processing of data it is possible that data is transmitted abroad, e.g. in connection with cloud services and the hosting of our website. Such data may be processed globally. By using any of our services the affected parties consent to such processing.

Multimedia Recordings

Images and videos recorded in training will only be posted on our website or social media accounts (e.g. Instagram, Facebook, etc.) after prior consent by the member or his/her legal representative.

Right to Information and Deletion of Data

Every member or interested party has the right to receive information over his/her data and may request correction thereof.
